

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Patient Navigator

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Patient Navigator. NCI Thesaurus. Code C48832.

Persons who are trained to guide and support those requiring assistance obtaining medical care. Such persons are sensitive to socio-economic factors within the community and provide a variety of services. Their primary responsibilities are to assist patients that have an abnormal examination or a positive finding to navigate through the health care system.