

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Pallister-Killian Syndrome

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Pallister-Killian Syndrome. NCI Thesaurus. Code C75458.

A very rare chromosomal disorder caused by tetrasomy of chromosome 12p. It is characterized by severe mental retardation, prominent forehead, sparse temporofrontal hair, hypertelorism, short nose, and streaks of hypopigmented skin.