

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Pancreatic Intraductal Papillary-Mucinous Carcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Pancreatic Intraductal Papillary-Mucinous Carcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C5725.

A malignant glandular neoplasm arising from the exocrine pancreas. Microscopically it is characterized by the presence of mucoïd stroma formation, papillary patterns, and cystic changes. It has been associated with KRAS and T p53 gene mutations.