(1) TITLE:

I recommend rephrasing it depending on the purpose of the study.

(2) ABSTRACT:

- The main objective of the study does not exist, so I recommend adding a sentence or two in which the objective of the study is clearly stated.

- I recommend mentioning study instruments for qualitative and quantitative designs.

- What are the implications of the results of the study? What are the recommendations for future research and studies?

- I recommend a standardization of terms as there are several of them "digital mapping of resiliency", "mapping of digital resiliency", and "academic resilience".

(3) INTRODUCTION:

The introduction contains an extensive review of the literature. Also in the literature review section there is a comprehensive literature review. I recommend focusing in the introduction on providing an introduction to the subject under study.

(4) RESEARCH METHODOLOGY:

- I recommend stating clearly the techniques and procedures for qualitative data analysis.

- I recommend stating the selection or exclusion criteria for the samples (who participated in the interview, who participated in the survey, and why?)

(5) RESULTS AND DISCUSSION:

I recommend including the statistical results of CFA or EFA are not presented (model fit, VFI, convergent validity, discriminant validity, etc.), which are necessary for SEM analysis.

(6) CONCLUSION:

- I recommend making suggestions for future research.

- I recommend clarifying the implications of the study findings for university stakeholders or readers.

- I recommend mentioning the impact of the results of this study on the current situation after the end of the Corona pandemic.
