

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Succinate Dehydrogenase

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Succinate Dehydrogenase. NCI Thesaurus. Code C112049.

A heterotetrameric enzyme complex found in the inner mitochondrial membrane. This protein complex catalyzes the oxidation of succinate and reduction of ubiquinone and plays a role in both the citric acid cycle and the electron transport chain.