

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Well Differentiated Fibrosarcoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Well Differentiated Fibrosarcoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C9025.

A well-differentiated malignant neoplasm arising from the deep soft tissues. It is characterized by the presence of spindle-shaped fibroblasts and collagenous stroma formation in a herringbone growth pattern.