

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Serial Transverse Cross-Sectioning

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Serial Transverse Cross-Sectioning. NCI Thesaurus. Code C142148.

A histological method used to determine surgical margin for skin tumors. The process involves cutting a specimen into 3 or more sections and examining a thin slice from each cut face.