

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Nonsense Mutation

National Cancer Institute (NCI)

Source

National Cancer Institute (NCI). Nonsense mutation.

A genetic alteration that causes the premature termination of a protein. The altered protein may be partially or completely inactivated, resulting in a change or loss of protein function. Also called nonsense variant.