Review of: "[Review] Criminology review of the crime of gambling case in Batam City"

Norita Jubit

[Review] Criminology review of the crime of gambling case in Batam City

Title

The title is very interesting.

Abstract

Should explain how the data was collected and sampling. What is the contribution of this article to police in help to prevent gambling in Batam City? In this section did not mention the finding.

Introduction

How the gambling case in the development country, in global level and local level? Author should be put the trend statistic of gambling cases in Indonesia that was reported from 2019-2022. How the issue of gambling in Indonesia? Introduction section should answer the question why you choose that topic, why it is important, put the research gap. How about the previous research about gambling? Why author choose Batam City as study area? What is the differentiation of this study with other study?

Research Methods

In this section is not clear because author did not explain clear about how they choose the participants? Who are their participants? How many the sampling? How the design of the study?

Discussion

In this section, the comment is Batam City located description should be put in subtopic of Methodology and display the map to show where the location of Batam City in Indonesia. How many the population in Batam City from 2019-2022? How about the economic condition?

What are the factors that influence the decrease and increase of the number of gambling within the period of 2019-2022? The factors causing the occurrence of gambling in Batam City did not supported by literature review.