

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Social communications

Oleksandr Kholod¹

¹ Vasyl Stefanyk Precarpathian National University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Social communications is a social engineering toolkit that using communication technologies to create information, search for it, curating, broadcasting, sharing, storing and measuring the impact on of the recipient is aimed at regulating social actions, interactions and social relations in society.