

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Long QT Syndrome 3

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Long QT Syndrome 3. NCI Thesaurus. Code C137959.

An autosomal dominant condition caused by mutation(s) in the SCN5A gene, encoding sodium channel protein type 5 subunit alpha. It is characterized by a prolonged QT interval that may result in torsade de pointes, ventricular fibrillation and/or sudden cardiac death.