

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Hypermutation Phenotype

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Hypermutation Phenotype. NCI Thesaurus. Code C140413.

A genetic marker marked by the presence of mutations in genes that maintain genomic integrity, which leads to greatly increased rates of mutation for the rest of the genome and may induce malignant transformation.