

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Cardiac Resynchronization Therapy

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Cardiac Resynchronization Therapy. NCI Thesaurus. Code C80436.

A surgical procedure in which a pacemaker is implanted to re-coordinate the electrical activity of the right and left ventricles in patients with heart failure.