

Review of: "[Commentary] Decentralization — “The Fundamental Challenge in the Pakistan Is the Decentralization of Health Care”"

Asm Shahabuddin¹

¹ UNICEF

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The topic itself is very important for Pakistan. However, it would have been better if the author could highlight the current health system challenges in the country due to decentralization and give a few examples from other countries of how decentralization works or when it does not. A few on-the-ground examples of how decentralization could work in Pakistan would be great. I would also suggest considering recent information on the topic since most of the references used are old.