

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Aryl Hydrocarbon Receptor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Aryl Hydrocarbon Receptor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C17273.

Aryl hydrocarbon receptor (848 aa, ~96 kDa) is encoded by the human AHR gene. This protein is involved in the regulation of apoptosis, the cell cycle and xenobiotic-stimulated gene transcription.