I recommend accepting this paper for publication after addressing the following corrections.

TITLE:

1. Write the plant scientific name in italic.
2. It should be its antimicrobial activity, not their antimicrobial activity

Abstract:

Summarize the results of all the characterization techniques in the abstract.

Introduction:

Write the scientific name completely in italic.

Materials:

In which country were the experiments conducted? Why is the plant bought from Pakistan?

Methods:

Write all the scientific names of bacteria in italic.

Results:

In the UV analysis, antibacterial activity is discussed instead of UV analysis.
