

Review of: "[Commentary] The WHO strategies to reduce tobacco-related deaths are insufficient"

Neşe Karakaş¹

¹ Malatya Turgut Özal Üniversitesi

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The manuscript discusses the adequacy of WHO's strategies for smoking cessation. That's why it attracts attention. The subject is handled extremely well. The paper is well written and arguments are supported by adequate and valid references from the literature. Thus, it deserves publication.