

Review of: "[Short Communication] Individual opinions on the excessive and under diagnosis and treatment of thyroid cancer"

Robert Kralik<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> St. Elizabeth Cancer Institute Hospital - Onkologický ústav sv. Alžbety, s.r.o

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

A nicely written short report on the issues in the management of thyroid cancer. The authors rightly point out that excessive examination of the thyroid gland leads to an increase in the number of borderline nodule findings and thus increases the demands for correct classification and surgical and other treatment. On the other hand, incorrect classification can lead to undertreatment of patients. It is an issue that is currently highly topical and discussed, the format of a short report probably does not reflect the scope of this discussion