

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Microneedle Drug Delivery System

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Microneedle Drug Delivery System. NCI Thesaurus. Code C156666.

A drug delivery device consisting of an adhesive-like patch covered with solid or hollow projections (microneedles), usually ranging in length from 50 to 900 micrometers, designed to deliver therapeutic agents through the skin.