

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Imagery Therapy

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Imagery Therapy. NCI Thesaurus. Code C15375.

A therapeutic exercise used in treatment of pain, hyperventilation, panic, and other conditions. The practitioner guides the patient into a semi-hypnotic state by verbally introducing positive and soothing images. It is as a form of distraction and attention therapy.