

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Common Variable Immunodeficiency

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Common Variable Immunodeficiency. NCI Thesaurus. Code C26725.

A primary immunodeficiency characterized by low levels or absence of all the immunoglobulin classes and lack of B-lymphocytes or plasma cells. It results in recurrent bacterial infections. Complications include autoimmune phenomena and cancer development.