

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Oligodendroglial Component Present

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Oligodendroglial Component Present. NCI Thesaurus. Code C68766.

A tumor component characterized by the presence of a diffuse, homogeneous population of tumor cells (oligodendroglial cells) with round nuclei and clear cytoplasm. The infiltrate has a honeycomb appearance. An oligodendroglial component can be seen in central nervous system tumors including glioblastomas and mixed gliomas.