

Review of: "The Spherical Horse and COVID-19"

Prasantha Bharathi Dhandapani

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The overview is good. A little more references will be more useful to the readers. The study needs concrete evidence to verify the discussion. So that it will be carried to the next step. Mathematical parameters needs clear information. There are many SIRD models varying for various disease. The authors are hereby encouraged to convert the idea in to the full length paper if possible. The idea is good and a needful one in the current scenario of pandemic period.