Dear Authors,

I appreciate your hard work and dedication in crafting your research paper. However, considering the following points could enhance the clarity of ideas in the study:

1. Write the problem statement and objectives of the study clearly.
2. Check for grammatical mistakes and focus on making ideas coherent with each other, which is missing throughout the writing.
3. Improve the in-text citation and formatting.
4. Shorten the introduction section and clearly mention the study significance.
5. The study design and analysis methods are not mentioned in the methodology section.
6. Concise the conclusion section and mention research implications.
