

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Potassium Channel Binding

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Potassium Channel Binding. NCI Thesaurus. Code C40530.

A process that involves the binding of an ion, usually Ca^{++} , Na^{+} or Cl^{-} , to a potassium channel. These interactions are involved in potassium ion transport, which establishes the electrochemical potential of the resting membrane.