Thank you for assigning me as the reviewer of this good manuscript.

This manuscript explains the effect of ethnic differences on breast cancer presentation and prognosis in Singapore.

The abstract, aim of the study, methods used, and results are already appropriate and stated clearly. The Discussion also elaborates on the results from this study. The conclusion also concludes the findings from this study. Overall, this is a good, informative manuscript with good findings.

However, improvements are needed:

In methods, please kindly explain the inclusion and exclusion criteria, as well as the statistical analysis used to obtain the results.

Thank you.
