

Review of: "[Research Note] Dengue – Therapeutic Efforts in Mexico"

Sergio Isaac De La Cruz Hernández

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The authors show interesting data about dengue treatments, the use of some drugs against the disease and some measures to improve vector control. However, I consider that the message of this work should be clearer, because the proposal for the management of dengue disease is described in a few lines at the end of this manuscript.