

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Screening

National Cancer Institute (NCI)

Source

National Cancer Institute (NCI). Screening.

Clinical evaluation of an asymptomatic individual in the general population aimed at identifying abnormalities which might signal the presence of a specific medical condition. The intent is to find diseases at the earliest possible stage in their development in order to improve the chances for cure or reduce morbidity.