

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Breast Microglandular Adenosis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Breast Microglandular Adenosis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C5199.

A rare variant of breast adenosis characterized by the proliferation of small round glands in a collagenous stroma. The epithelial cells are cuboidal and there are no myoepithelial cells present. There is no evidence of atypia.