

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Nasal ganglioglioma

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Nasal ganglioglioma. ORPHA:141115

Nasal ganglioglioma is a rare tumor, presenting in newborns, containing both neuronal and astrocytic components and that can be endonasal, extranasal or both. It is usually identified as a nasal mass that may cause feeding difficulties and nasal obstruction.