

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Autosomal Dominant Lateral Temporal Lobe Epilepsy

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Autosomal Dominant Lateral Temporal Lobe Epilepsy. NCI Thesaurus. Code C141441.

An autosomal dominant condition caused by mutation(s) in the LGI1 gene, encoding leucine-rich glioma-inactivated protein 1. It is characterized by partial seizures originating in the temporal lobe and often accompanied by auditory sensory manifestations.