

Review of: "The Role of Women's Business Performance in Promoting Sustainable Development"

Maya Indriastuti¹

¹ Universitas Islam Sultan Agung

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Comments

Abstract:

Overall the abstract is sound

Introduction:

Please start it with a broader area/issue/context then relate it yours context/area of research.

Highlight the research gaps and problems in your area/context. You can also highlights the gaps of previous research.

provide a deeper explanation or phenomenon that occurs about women's business performance especially in the United Nations. It should be explained in a more clear the findings of prior studies to support it.

Also, it can be presented the novelty of this research.

Point 1.1 please make a paragraph

Point 1.2 can be delete. This has been explained in points 2.2.1 until 2.2.5

Method:

The reason use of CiteSpace software should be explained

Findings:

the criteria of measuring validity should be presented, not only reliability. For instance follows Hair et al. (2017).

The paper should also tidy its tables and eliminate unnecessary rows

Discussion :

The discussion should be improved.

You can also present some results' tables and figures in the appendix section and discuss in the discussion section. This will enhance the readability of the paper.

The arguments must be supported by the literature you cited in hypotheses development.

Please describe that either your results are supported or contradict the literature you cited, especially discussion each hypothesis please is discussed in detail

References:

The author needs add more relevant literature and update. Also complete with DOI

Attachment:

Supplemental Information and Data