The research topic is interesting, however, corrections should be made.

The introduction lacks important elements such as justifying the importance of the research, methodology and main results. Also indicate at the end of the introduction how the document is structured.

Review the coherence between objective, results and conclusions.

Compare the results with those obtained with other similar research.

The literature review should be expanded, which is very scarce for a bibliometric type of research.

Improve future lines of research

I hope to contribute to strengthen your research
