- Impact of Covid 19 on real estate development
- Economic recession
- Impact on real estate investment
- Prior studies in the Covid 19 crisis section should be mentioned in the summary and conclusion section
- The thematic explanation should be in the introduction section. It should not be explained in a separate section with a heading. Briefly about the world, nation and local level
- The paper is unable to give a clear view of the resilience played by shareholders in urban real estate development during Covid 19.
- Resilience to mitigate the Covid 19 crisis in the real estate development sector.
