

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Liquid Chromatography

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Liquid Chromatography. NCI Thesaurus. Code C16435.

A type of chromatography in which separation of a mixture is achieved by passing a sample in a stream of liquid solvent through some form of material that will provide resistance by virtue of chemical interactions between the components of the sample and the material.