

Review of: "Examining Water Use and Sanitation Practices in Rural Schools of Chegutu District, Mashonaland West Province, Zimbabwe"

Ioannis Tzoutzas

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

It is a simple paper providing fruitful information concerning the level of Water use and safety in the country.

The proposals for the improvement of the whole situation are excellent.

Attached to the text please find some clarifications necessary for the improvement of the quality of information provided from the article.