

Open Peer Review on Qeios

GAIA Level 3 Assessment of Provider Initiated Preterm Delivery

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. GAIA Level 3 Assessment of Provider Initiated Preterm Delivery. NCI Thesaurus. Code C127952.

GAIA Level 3 Assessment of Provider-Initiated Preterm Delivery is defined by three criteria: first, the patient is determined to be between 24 0/7 and 36 6/7 weeks gestation; second, from recall, the patient reports that there were no signs or symptoms of spontaneous onset of preterm labor; third, from recall, the patient reports that the healthcare provider indicated the need to induce labor or to perform a cesarean delivery between, resulting in preterm delivery.