

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Anger Camera

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Anger Camera. NCI Thesaurus. Code C94859.

The original gamma camera invented by H. O. Anger in 1957 and its subsequent generations. This original camera consisted of one large crystal in which gamma rays were converted to scintillations of light. Then, a limited number of detectors viewed these through a collimator to provide an image.