

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Acute Hemorrhagic Leukoencephalitis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Acute Hemorrhagic Leukoencephalitis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C84535.

A degenerative brain disorder presenting with acute neurological manifestations. It usually associated with an acute infection or vaccination. It is characterized by brain hemorrhage, vascular necrosis and demyelination. Signs and symptoms include fever, headache, vomiting, convulsions and loss of consciousness.