

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Integrin Alpha-M

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Integrin Alpha-M. NCI Thesaurus. Code C17373.

Integrin alpha-M (1152 aa, ~127 kDa) is encoded by the human ITGAM gene. This protein is involved in both leukocyte adhesion and the phagocytosis of complement coated particles.