

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Placental Hormone Activity Alteration

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Placental Hormone Activity Alteration. NCI Thesaurus. Code C40613.

Any physiologic process that results in modulated activity of any of the placental hormones, including choriogonadotropic hormone, chorionic somatomammotropin hormone, inhibin, estrogen and progesterone. These processes are involved in physiologic changes that support pregnancy.