

Open Peer Review on Qeios

First Degree Relative

National Human Genome Research Institute (NHGRI)

Source

National Human Genome Research Institute (NHGRI). First Degree Relative.

A first degree relative is a family member who shares about 50 percent of their genes with a particular individual in a family. First degree relatives include parents, offspring, and siblings.