Embargo period

Public Domain

Source

Open Research Glossary

A length of time imposed on a research output for users who have not paid for access, or do not have institutional access, before it is made freely available.