

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Male Gonadal Ridge Implantation

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Male Gonadal Ridge Implantation. NCI Thesaurus. Code C29899.

A technique for transplantation of stem cells, derived from embryonic gonadal ridge (embryonic germ cells), which are pluripotent and capable of self-renewal for long periods. The technique has a wide potential to cure diseases by repairing or replacing damaged cells and tissues as well as in gene therapy.