

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Dermatofibrosarcoma protuberans

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base.

Dermatofibrosarcoma protuberans. ORPHA:31112

Dermatofibrosarcoma protuberans (DFSP) is a rare infiltrating soft tissue sarcoma, generally of low grade malignancy, arising from the dermis of the skin and characteristically associated with a specific chromosomal translocation t(17;22).