

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Protein Kinase C Alpha Type

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Protein Kinase C Alpha Type. NCI Thesaurus. Code C17805.

Protein kinase C alpha type (672 aa, ~77 kDa) is encoded by the human PRKCA gene.

This protein is involved in lipid-dependent signaling, cell proliferation, apoptosis, cell differentiation, cell migration, cell adhesion, and platelet function.