

Review of: "Recognition Ambiguity! Kenya's Foreign Policy Towards Afghanistan, Iraq, Iran, Israel, And Palestine Under Moi Era (1978-1990)"

Juliet Kamau

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This is an interesting take on how Kenya's overall Foreign Policy is ambiguous and determined by the President of the day. However, I have a few recommendations and edits done on the attached document that would hopefully make it better including grammatical and factual concerns.