

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Colorectal L-Cell Glucagon-Like Peptide-Producing Neuroendocrine Tumor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Colorectal L-Cell Glucagon-Like Peptide-Producing Neuroendocrine Tumor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C96161.

A neuroendocrine tumor that arises from the colon or rectum and produces glucagon-like peptides. Morphologically, it is characterized by the presence of neoplastic cells forming tubular or trabecular patterns.