Review of: "Emotional Intelligence and Cybervictimization: Stratified Multilevel Analysis With Synthetic Data"

Saeed Lotfan[1]

1 Gebze Tecnical University

Dear editor,

Thank you for sending this interesting research to me for review.

This work tries to find the correlation between emotional intelligence (EI) and cybervictimization among adolescents. The synthetic sample consists of 48,000 cases, for which statistical features are derived and investigated.

In the reviewer's opinion, this work has enough novelty and discussion on the topic. Conclusions are thorough, and the paper is well written.