

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Pseudohypoaldosteronism

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Pseudohypoaldosteronism. NCI Thesaurus. Code C85034.

An inherited or acquired disorder of electrolyte metabolism, characterized by the inability of the renal tubules to respond to aldosterone. It is manifested by hyperkalemic metabolic acidosis, urinary salt wasting, normal or increased aldosterone secretion and normal glomerular filtration rate.